DL Course Development Software Training

The Distributed Learning Resource Center is hosting a series of on-campus training sessions covering Macromedia Attain products.

You can expect…
- To learn about using software to transfer course content to a distributed learning environment.
- To learn about the capabilities of the Macromedia Attain suite of authoring software.
- To learn to execute content programming at an introductory, intermediate and advanced level.
- To develop a sense of the software's capabilities to support individual teaching styles.
- To use the software to build a sample DL piece.

Flash Produces and delivers high-impact Web sites! Pulsing musical tracks, sound effects, gorgeous animations, and innovative interfaces all converge in Flash. Developers can create an array of dazzling effects using the drawing tools in Flash or by importing artwork from favorite vector illustration tools, such as Macromedia FreeHand. Easy to learn for developers of any skill level.
